Statement

As of January 1, 2006, contractors must prominently display their registration number on all commercial vehicles - "HIC Reg#" followed by the registration number in lettering at least one inch in height. The registration number also must be displayed on all business documents and contracts as well as in correspondence with consumers and in all advertisements. They also must display their original registration renewal certificate in the place of business. In addition, contracts over $500 must be in writing and must contain certain terms which can be found in the statute and regulations available on www.njconsumeraffairs.gov/contractor.htm.

"I certify that the information entered on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge, and further acknowledge that if the above information is willfully false, I am subject to punishment and/or disciplinary action including license suspension or revocation or the imposition of civil penalties as may be provided by law."

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION EXPIRATION/REINSTATEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

Our records indicate that you failed to renew your registration as a home improvement contractor during the renewal period ending on December 31, 2009. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-138 a and b:

- a. On or after December 31, 2005, no person shall offer to perform, or engage, or attempt to engage in the business of making or selling home improvements unless registered with the Division of Consumer Affairs in accordance with the provisions of this act.
- b. Every contractor shall annually register with the director. Application for registration shall be on a form provided by the Division and shall be accompanied by a reasonable fee, set by the director in an amount sufficient to defray the Division's expenses incurred in administering and enforcing this act.

Note that your New Jersey Home Improvement Contractor registration has expired and, under State law, you may not work as a home improvement contractor.

If you wish to reinstate your registration:

- I. A principal officer must answer each of the questions listed above and sign and date the application where indicated.
- II. Enclose with this form a check or money order for the reinstatement fee of $125 made payable to the New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs. Print your registration number on your check or money order.
- III. Enclose with this form a current certificate of commercial general liability insurance (see sample page attached) in an amount of at least $500,000 per occurrence. (Enclosing a copy of your current certificate of commercial general liability insurance is acceptable, but the submission of just the declaration page is not.)
- IV. Send all of the above within 15 business days of receiving this notice to the address below.

Please note, any change in the information supplied in your initial application including a change in your business name, the ownership of your business, or the physical location of the business must be reported within 30 days to: Regulated Business Section, 124 Halsey Street, 7th Floor, Newark, NJ 07102. Failure to do so may result in action being taken against your registration.
